The Ride

Travel within the Bullfinch Triangle requires advance notice during the day, and will be restricted due to roadway closures in the afternoon and evening. When roads are closed two security checkpoints have been designated for THE RIDE:

- General public: Merrimac St.
- Registered journalist or DNC attendees: North Washington St.

Bicycles

July 26-29, conventional bicycles will not be permitted on the subway or commuter rail. Before and after the convention, the regular MBTA policy will be in effect. During the convention, the following alternatives are available to cyclists who use transit:

- Folding bicycles (folded on Commuter Rail, or folded & bagged on the subway) are allowed on the T. Please be advised that all parcels systemwide are subject to inspection.
- Cyclists desiring access to transit are encouraged to park their bicycles at stations that have bike parking.
